IS EVERYONE, EXPECT YOU, WANTING TO GET MARRIED?

Under Swedish law, no one can force you, or put pressure on you, to get married against your will – regardless of your age. You – and nobody else – shall decide if you shall get married or not. If you do choose to marry, only you – and nobody else – shall decide when you shall get married.

TALK TO AN ADULT.

If you fear that you will say yes against your will, or if anyone is offering threatening or trying to persuade you to get married, you need to speak to an adult to whom you can trust. This person may be somebody at school or at a youth centre or somebody from social services or the police. You can also turn to someone in this position if you are about to travel overseas and you are afraid that you might be married off.
